WAYNE CAVANAUGH'S CRITIGUE

DOG CLASSES

Overall, a nice group of pointers with quite a few correct heads and several good tails. Thrilled to see many with good proportions; pleased to see a general lack of "long and low." In this critique, I chose not to belabor a description of incorrect movement in each individual dog - however, I was disappointed to see a higher than usual percentage of hackney fronts, rolling bodies, weak rears without power, and an overall lack of balance in movement.

I sorted for type, then rewarded the best movement from those with sufficient breed type. Compromises were necessary. There was quality to reward throughout the winners, but depth of quality was a concern regarding overall type and general structure. Overall, there was a good percentage of correct head planes, chiseling, and good bites. Tails were decent but only a few had short, tapered, lashing tails. Many had thick and long houndy tails, and some had long, thin tails lacking in taper and strength of root. While many were well-made, especially in specials, I'd be remiss to mention a concern of construction issues including short upper arms, long loins causing rolling and twisting toplines, long rear pasterns and narrow second thighs causing a lack of power behind.

With that said, I was pleased to be able to celebrate the many virtues found among the entry, many of which reminded me of the classic beauty of this most beautiful of all breeds. I also wanted to mention the great progress that the breed has made in hunting and field trial work. Wonderful to see the working titles. There was lovely quality in the hunting and field trial classes and the depth of quality in veterans was thrilling to see.

PUPPY DOG 6-9

1st Malmason Irish Starr Salty Beaches - Handsome B/W youngster, with proper proportions, and correct skull planes and ears. Sound, held his profile while moving. Gorgeous short tail, well tapered with width at the base tapering to the end. Would prefer a shade more width of second thigh which may very well come as he matures.

2nd Bookstor Fabello Pied Piper - Striking O/W, proper head piece with good chiseling, correct ear length and shape. Lot lots to like but would prefer a bit longer upper arm and shorter rear pasterns which was reflected in his movement on the day.

3rd Seasyde Sea Glass – B/W with lots of elements of type to admire, but not quite knitted together as well as others at this time in repose or on the move.

4th Malmason Irish Starr Beach You To It – O/W quality pieces, correct leg to back proportions; not quite as strong in croup, or width of second thigh as others.

PUPPY DOG 9-12, RESERVE WINNERS DOG

1st Monarch's Danger Zone – handsome young O/W dog with promise for the future. Correct proportions, proper head and tail, pleasant to see forechest and correct front assembly (not easy to find lately), well-balanced front and rear in repose and on the move. RWD, held in strong competition for winners dog, a youngster with promise.

2nd Dynasty Oz-Mopolitan – O/W again with lots of similar quality, substance and front assembly to winner. Too proud of his tail on the day and preferred the croup of the winner.

3rd Southern On The Rise – well-presented O/W with good length of leg to height balance, many pleasing pieces, preferred upper arm length and movement of others.

4th Birdsboro Brer Rabbit – Solid black, beautifully chiseled head, excellent bee-sting tail and good feet. Correct proportions. Preferred the front and rear angulation, and shorter rear pasterns of the others.

PUPPY DOG 12-15

1ST JJJ Judd O/W – O/W teenager with pleasant head and tail, good feet and proportional bone and substance. Not as strong in rear and croup at this period of growth.

PUPPY DOG 15-18, WINNERS DOG

1st JJJ Wynot Soundcheck – Striking O/W dog, all pointer in make and shape, well-chiseled and balanced headpiece with pronounced stop and perfect turn of lip. Square and balanced in body, a good example of "compact power and agile grace," proper short and thin-leathered ears, short and tapered tail, and well up on his toes; not without fault but a dog with the look of a quick and efficient hunter.

2nd Southern Oldtown Golden Opportunity – O/W pleasing bone, feet, good proportions in outline, preferred the rib and loin length of winner.

3rd Kinnike JJJ Castleglen Tumbling Dice CD RN CGC – O/W youngster with a pleasing head, good bone and feet, and proper proportions. Preferred the tail carriage and croup of the others.

BRED-BY EXHIBITOR DOG, PUPPY

1st Southern Special Envoy – B/W youngster with, clean neck and shoulders, well angulated front, proper head planes and chiseling. Smooth and athletic but I'd prefer a bit more length of rib cage and less length of loin.

2nd Penzance Racecity Churray for Churros – O/W with good depth of chest, proper bone and feet, I preferred the heads of the others at this stage of growth.

3rd Malmason Irish Starr Son of a Beach – a very well-made O/W dog with beautiful balance, front and rear angulation, pleasing and proper head and tail. The likely winner of this class but had an unfortunate scare and was unable to recover in the moment.

BRED-BY EXHIBITOR DOG, ADULT

1st Kinnike JJJ Nigel – O/W with a classic head and textbook tail. A picture of compact power, correct proportions, excelling in breed type.

2nd Coquetel The Calling of the Clans – O/W beautiful in repose who caught my eye as the class came in. Pleasing head, well-balanced muzzle and backskull flowing into a strong and long neck. Good ribbing and depth. A bit short in upper arm, however, which compromised his movement.

3rd Monarch's Destination Unknown – O/W pleasing head with pronounced stop and fine chiseling, good bone, feet, and proportions, would prefer more rear angulation and shorter rear pasterns.

4th JJJ Whynot the Grinch – O/W, strong in repose, similar to WD in make and shape, disappointed on the move.

OPEN DOG

1st Stockfell Saros – B/W, handsome dog with pleasing headpiece and expression,, would prefer less ear leather but with good depth of brisket, correct proportions, good bone and feet. Could have used himself better on the move.

2nd Starstrk Alydar Record Year – agile B/W, correct skull planes, beautifully flared nostrils, pronounced stop and fine chiseling under his eyes, would prefer a bit more angulation fore and aft and more width of second thigh.

WINNERS DOG – a close decision between two promising youngsters.

WD - Whynot Soundcheck

RWD - Monarch's Danger Zone

BITCH CLASSSES

Some very nice bitches but again, there was a higher percentage of concerns in movement and basic structure than I'd prefer. Plenty of breed type to see and no issues with bites.

PUPPY BITCH 6-9, RESERVE WINNERS BITCH

1st Bookstor Fabello Pipe Dream – gorgeous elements of breed type with well chiseled and balanced headpiece, proper tail, clean and flowing lines; a bit refined but beautiful in balance. At this age would prefer a bit more width of thigh and general scope to complete the picture.2nd Southern For the Moment – another quality O/W with lots to offer. Very good depth of rib and fill in front, preferred the head and ears on the winner.

3rd Southern Charisma – B/W agile and lithe with pleasing head planes, would prefer a shorter loin for her shape, others presented better feet on the day.

PUPPY BITCH 9-12

1st - Monarch's Royal Fly Over to Brackenmoor – O/W with lots of quality and breed type. Correct proportions, very pleasing head and ears, correct tail, proportional bone for her size.

2nd – Cumbrian Cowgirls Don't Cry - a very good B/W, closest decision in the classes of the day. Correct make and shape, beautiful balance standing and moving, proper forechest and fill while maintaining depth over width of brisket. Would prefer more width of muzzle to complete a classic picture.

3rd – Southern Making The Game – O/W proper forechest and fill, very good feet, tail base and taper, would prefer better skull planes and head.

4th – Southern Steady to Flush – clean lines, good neck and shoulders, a bit steep in croup compared to others.

12-15 BITCHES

1st – JJJolene – pleasant O/W with good skull planes, correct proportions, and a beautiful pointer tail.

AMATEUR OH BITCHES

1st – 5Starr Malmason The One With All The Jealousy – B/W beautiful headpiece with pronounced stop, fine chiseling, smooth neck into well laid back shoulders. Would prefer that her rib cage was a bit less truncated towards the end.

BRED-BY PUPPY BITCHES

1st – Southern Zones of Fire – B/W smooth transition neck into shoulder, well-filled front with proper depth of brisket with well laid-back shoulders.

2nd – Monarch's Playin' With The Boys – O/W bitch, strong in make, shape and breed type. Correct proportions. I regrettably gave her far too much leeway in temperament.

3rd – Southern Dollar Girl – Classic elements to her head with good length of muzzle in balance with her backskull, large flaring nostrils, excellent skull planes. Strong and clean neck but not could be a bit stronger in topline and tail set to complete the picture.

4th – Malmason Irish Starr Beach Please – several beautiful elements of type, could use a bit longer upper arm and more fill in front at this stage of growth.

BRED-BY ADULT BITCHES

1st – Oaklawn Got to Have Faith – many strong elements of type including head and tail with correct proportions, always a pleasure to find in the breed. Well- balanced throughout in repose and on the move.

2nd – Perryglen Hylife Lady Sophia – excellent and gorgeous well-chiseled head with strong and balanced muzzle of correct length, flowing into a well-set neck. A close second to the winner; preferred the winner's more balanced movement and length of upper arm on the day.

3rd – Avalon's the After Party – beautiful-bodied liver and white with proper rib cage and depth; while balanced, preferred the rear and front angulation on others.

4th – Avalon's Let it Be - another well-bodied bitch, similar to the 3rd place winner.

OPEN BITCHES, WINNERS BITCH

1st – Wilchrimane Frangipani – this bitch caught my eye the moment she walked in the ring. A picture of balance and breed-type, defining "compact power and agile grace", with excellent proportions and balance throughout. Among the best tails of the day. Thrilled to feel good muscle. Good fill in front while maintaining proper proportions of depth to width. Correct width of second thigh, proper spring of rib, correct bone - neither round nor too fine. Pleasing head that was set beautifully into a strong neck. Among the most balanced movers of the day holding her shape on the move.

2nd – Majesty A Thousand Wishes - another lovely bitch, compact power, excellent proportions with a beautiful set-on of neck. Correct bone, legs and feet. Preferred the tail and balanced movement of the winner, but a bitch with promise.

3rd – Cumbrian Dawn Bells – another with proper proportions, proper rib spring, correct fill in front, pleasing head with neck flowing beautifully into body. Preferred the movement of the winner but right up there in best class of the day.

4th – Helaura's Canada Goose Fly to Me at Perryglenn – lovely headpiece, well-chiseled with excellent skull planes.

WB - Wilchrimane Frangipani

RWB - Bookstor Fabello Pipe Dream

VETERAN DOGS 7-9 Years

A beautiful class of veterans all shown in great bloom with enthusiasm. Overall type and movement of all three in this class was a pleasure to see.

1st – GCHS Creeksyde's Fire in My Soul – beautiful type and balance, a pleasure to see on the move.

FIELD TRAIL DOGS

1st – Ch. Bookstore Prince of Conde, JH – beautiful head and spirit, very much enjoying his time to shine.

HUNTING DOGS –

How nice to see three beautiful dogs, all with the form to follow the function.

1st – Ch. Nyhar's Nothing Gonna Stop Us Now – such a wonderful liver with an outstanding head, good balance, still strong on his legs, looking like he can work a long day with strength to spare.

VETERAN BITCHES – 7-9 years

Another brilliant class of veterans with four lovely bitches.

1st – Ch Robwyn Lois Lane to Kanix – a lovely bitch looking great for any age. Compact power, correct balance topped off with a beautiful headpiece.

VETERAN BITCHES – 9-11 years

Again, a strong class of bitches, all with elements of type and good movement.

1st - Ch Wynot Let Glory Shine – a beautiful bitch in another strong class of veterans. Gorgeous headpiece with excellent muzzle and large flared nostrils. Her balance showed both in repose and while moving with enthusiasm and grace. Thrilled to see a lashing tail.

VETERAN BITCHES – over 11 years

What a pleasure to see the quality in veterans hold up throughout the genders and ages.

1st – GCH Shadybrook Coralwook Harlington of Madison – a quality bitch that still looks the part, smooth from her nose to her lashing tail, beautiful bone and depth of brisket with fluid movement and lovely outline.

FIELD TRAIL BITCHES

Another strong class with three bitches built to do the job.

1st – Blackthorne Wicked Wednesday – beautifully chiseled head with proper skull planes and depth and breadth of muzzle, balanced everywhere.

HUNTING BITCHES

Three lovely bitches, all built to do the work for which they were intended.

1st – GCHS Racecity Penzance I Won't Back Dawn, JH - a beautiful bitch with compact power and agile grace. Correct proportions, pleasing head and tail, and smooth on the move.

BEST OF BREED

GCH Tahari N Clearcreek Spirit In The Night – this is a dog that the breed needs now more than ever, a wonderful reminder of a "muscular body bespeaking both staying power and dash" combined with breed type in shape, head, tail and outline. Pleasing head with correct skull planes, beautiful balance of skull and strength of muzzle. Head set well on a strong, slightly arched neck that flows into a very well-made front assembly when viewed from any direction. His depth and length of rib cage, too-often lacking today, and balance and strength of angulation both ends, formed a classic pointer outline void of exaggeration and trends. A well-made powerful hindquarter with proper width of thigh. All of which creates one of the best moving pointers we've seen in years. Type and soundness, an honest gundog with elements of type and structure, all of which create the whole package for a classic gundog.

BEST OF WINNERS

Wilchrimane Frangipani - As described above, beautiful to watch her move with a lashing bee-sting tail in rhythm with her gait. Head-on, from above, and in profile, she has a beautiful spring of rib, correct fill in front while maintaining depth over width of brisket, and a strong croup with a powerful hind quarter. Her perfectly shaped tail has a strong width of base tapering properly to the tip. As evidenced by anyone watching, she was a strong contender splitting hairs with the more mature BOB and BOS winners.

BEST OF OPPOSITE

GCHG Aspyre Cat Got Ur Tongue - A pleasing head, gorgeous planes in profile, flowing beautifully into a clean neck that is a wonderful combination of strength and elegance. Her clean, smooth shoulders transition effortlessly into her body. From the side, she is well up on leg, her proportions and classic shape are all Pointer. A genuine and pleasing show dog.

SELECT DOG

GCHG Solivia's Defining Moment at Playlist – a handsome dog with correct proportions, depth, and classic pointer profile. Beautiful headed dog with a correct tail to match. A very good moving dog that is all pointer from stem to stern.

SELECT BITCH

GCHS Creeksyde's Harley Quinn - A lovely bitch, strong in type and pointer action. I'd seen her before, but today she was in tip-top shape and showing her best to accentuate her flowing lines, beautiful head and tail and smooth, flowing motion.

AWARDS OF MERIT

Six beautiful pointers, all of which are lovely representatives of pointer shape and pointer movement. All were selected for their qualities in type and soundness. I was very fortunate and grateful to have them all from which to choose. Of course, I could have used a few more rosettes, a good problem to h

Best of Opposite in Futurity
CH Hollyfrost Oncore Bring Down The House

Cheryl Buchanan's Critique

The Futurity and Maturity competitors were very consistent. I saw strong rear assemblies, and pretty parallel anddish heads being represented. A variety of toplines due to lengths of loins where noticeable. Also, a variety of shoulders, some straighter than others. Overall, the quality of bone was wonderful to see. Judging was difficult because so many in the ring were just lovely and great all-around packages.

For me on the day, the Best in Futurity was a young bitch, Monarchs Playin with the Boys.
She was a handful in the ring for her breeder, owner, handler, but you couldn't miss the quality when she moved around the ring. Her shoulders and strong rear gave her a true down and back, the side-go was effortless. These are traits that would allow her to last hours in the field. Bone in proportion with her size, her topline strong. Let's not forget she was Pretty.

Best of Opposite Futurity was Ch. Hollyfrost Oncore Bring Down the House.
A good size dog with a strong front and rear making him a clean effortless mover, beautifully owner handled. This is a dog that would have the endurance to perform in the field.
A lovely head. His topline strong, great bone to size proportion. A handsome dog.

The Best in Maturity was GCH Southern Summit Hot Gossip.
The expertly handled dog had a masculine front chest, good bone, and a strong rear.
He was a big boy, but not course. Lovely curves down the topline to a great tail.
He covered the ring with a great down and back and the go around was nice to see.
Great ring presence, a handsome dog.

Thank you to the American Pointer Club for bestowing on me the honor of Judging Futurity and Maturity.
